

How Real-Time Scoreboards Change Contesting

Dayton Hamvention May 17, 2019

What is an online Scoreboard?

- A scoreboard is a website that collects messages directly from the contest participant's logging software via the Internet.
- It then publishes the ranked scores on a webpage every few minutes.
- Anyone can open a web browser and view how others are doing in the contest any time.

Why would you want to use one?

- Immediate feedback on how your score compares to others
- Fun to catch and pass another “racer”
- No need to wait for 3830 after the contest to know how you are doing
- More motivation to stay in the chair and keep making points
- It’s easy!

What scoreboard gives to a contester

- Immediate feedback on how your score compares to others
- Club or Team competition instant standings feedback
- Graphic tools for instant performance evaluation
- Graphic tools for after contest analysis

Immediate feedback on how your score compares to others

- Color coded indication of your standings for logged users:

An epic battle will take place on wpx between Felipe and Juanillo, we have promised each other a fight like no one before. We are fellow chachos but this time is for blood... I'll be using call WP4X to overshadow EF8R. We will take this fight to the live scores website.
